DETAILED ACTION

1. The following communication is in response to Applicant's amendment filed 07 December 2007.

Summary of Claims

2. Claims 55 and 56 are newly added. Claims 1-56 are currently pending.

Response to Restriction

3. Applicant's amendment has overcome the restriction mailed 08 August 2006 by including a linking claim to cover the combination of Group I and Group II.

Claim Objections

4. Claims 37 and 38 are objected to because of the following informalities: Claims 37 and 38 appear to be identical. Appropriate correction is required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

5. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

6. Claims 1-56 stand rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention:

Regarding claims 1-56, the terms “external residential expense”, “residential expense,” “external mortgage residential expense,” “non-mortgage residential expense” renders the claims indefinite because it is unclear what Applicant regards as the invention. Applicant has not provided for one of ordinary skill in the art to distinguish between these terms thus causing the metes and bounds of the claims to be confusing. Reasons for confusion are as follows:

Regarding claim 1, it is unclear whether the “external residential expense” in line 3 is the same or different than the “residential expense” in lines 2 and 4.

Regarding claim 8, it is unclear whether the “non-mortgage residential expense” in line 3 is the same or different than the “residential expense” in lines 2 and 4.

Claims 37 and 38 stand rejected for similar reasons to claim 1. However claim 37 is further unclear because it is programmed to carry out “mortgage crediting.” It is not clear whether mortgage crediting is considered a residential expense or an external residential expense.

Claims 39 stands rejected for similar reasons to claim 2. However claim 39 is further unclear because it is programmed to carry out “mortgage crediting.” It is not clear whether mortgage crediting is considered a residential expense, and the claim states that card activity is associated with non-mortgage residential expenses and then later performs mortgage crediting.

Claim 40, 42 stands rejected for similar reasons to claim 8.

Claim 41, 43 stands rejected for similar reasons to claim 1. Furthermore, claim 41 also recites an “external mortgage residential expense.” It is unclear whether this is considered part of a “residential expense” or an “external residential expense.”

Claims 55 and 56 stand rejected for reasons similar to claims 1 and 8.

Art Unit: 3691

Remaining claims 2-7, 9-36 and 44-54 for similar reasons or based upon their dependency.

For these reasons the metes and bounds of the claims are confusing and thus it would not be obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art what Applicant's regards as his invention. Therefore, the Examiner is unable to interpret what Applicant regards as his invention and respectfully requests that Applicant point out how these terms are similar or different.
